VOORWOORD

Het Jheronimus Bosch Art Center heeft met veel genoegen en met gepaste trots en in nauwe samenwerking met The Museum of Instant Images de expositie "THE MONK" ingericht in de torenkamers van het Art Center. Naast de tentoonstelling met de vaste collectie reproducties van alle werken van Jheronimus Bosch krijgt de bezoeker prachtige mail art te zien die is ontstaan vanuit het thema De Monnik, de man die met een onsterfelijke aanwezigheid over de hele wereld een rol speelde en dat ook nog wel lang zal blijven doen. Dit thema is met duizenden voorstellingen een veel verbeeld onderwerp van de kunstgeschiedenis. Aan de hier ter plekke zichtbare Sint-Jans kathedraal zijn al talloze monniken c.q. heiligen aan de buiten- en de binnenkant verbeeld, letterlijk. En ook op het werk van Jheronimus Bosch komt de monnik veelvuldig voor. Een uitdagend onderwerp dat talloze mail art kunstenaars inspireerde er daar nog een paar honderd aan toe te voegen. Het resultaat is opmerkelijk: binnen de beperkingen die een fysiek poststuk met zich meebrengt, is er een duizelingwekkende verscheidenheid in de kunstwerken te zien. Talloze monniken en heiligen en allemaal anders. Heel veel Bosschiaanse collages van onverwachte elementen, tekeningen en werken in veel meer verschillende technieken. In deze overweldigende beeldenvloed zullen de toeschouwers geneigd zijn om op zoek te gaan naar het werk dat hen door vorm, kleur en beeldtaal het meest aanspreekt.

Namens The Museum of Instant Images én het Jheronimus Bosch Art Center wens ik de bezoekers van deze mail art expositie veel kijk- en keuzegenoege toe.

J. Timmermans, voorzitter Stichting Jheronimus Bosch Centrum

Preface

The Jheronimus Bosch Art Center, in close collaboration with The Museum of Instant Images, takes great pleasure and pride in presenting the exhibition "THE MONK" which is arranged in the gallery rooms inside the tower of the Art Center. Besides the permanent collection of reproductions of all the works of Jheronimus Bosch in the Center, the visitor can enjoy also wonderful mail art inspired by the theme the Monk or the Saint, the man who played a role with immortal presence all over the world and will continue to do so, with thousands of artworks a much-imagined subject in art history, especially also in the work of Bosch. A challenging subject that inspired countless mail art artists to add a few hundred more. The outcome is remarkable: regardless of the limitations that a physical mail piece entails, the result is a dizzying gallimaufry. Numerous Monks and Saints and all different. Lots of Bosch-like collages of unexpected elements, drawings and more different techniques. In this overwhelming flood of images, visitors will be inclined to look for the most appealing work because of its shape, color or imagery.

On behalf of The Museum of Instant Images and the Jheronimus Bosch Art Center, I wish the visitors of this mail art exhibition plenty of viewing and choosing pleasure.

EXPOSITIE VASTE COLLECTIE REPRODUCTIES

De vaste collectie van het Jheronimus Bosch Art Center is in de aula van het Jheronimus Bosch Art Center te zien. Hier hangen panelen in hoogwaardige reproducties op ware grootte afgedrukt en prachtig ingelijst van alle werken van de laatmiddeleeuwse schilder Jheronimus Bosch. De bezoekers maken hier kennis met de wereld van Bosch: indrukwekkende panelen met visionaire voorstellingen in een raadselachtige beeldtaal. Bijzondere sculpturen als driedimensionale objecten hangen in de overweldigende ruimte van de voormalige kerk waarin het Art Center is gevestigd. Kortom: in het Jheronimus Bosch Art Center is de wereld van Bosch intens te beleven.

Het Jheronimus Bosch Art Center is hét kenniscentrum dat alle informatie over de beroemde Bossche schilder verzamelt en toegankelijk maakt voor het grote publiek. Vanaf 2001 vindt hier om de vijf jaar een internationaal congres plaats waar alle wetenschappers die zich met het werk en leven van Jheronimus Bosch bezighouden, bijeenkomen om elkaar op de hoogte te brengen van de laatste ontwikkelingen en nieuwe inzichten. In 2016, het jaar dat herdacht werd dat Jheronimus Bosch 500 jaar geleden is overleden, vond er weer een groot congres plaats. De resultaten van een diepgaand onderzoek naar alle werken van Bosch is door een groep deskundigen hier bekend gemaakt onder de naam The Bosch Research and Conservation Project.

MAIL ART-EXPOSITIE THE MONK van 1 mei 2019 tot augustus 2019.

In de toren van het Jheronimus Bosch Art Center is er een kunstgalerij van vier verdiepingen die gevuld is met Monk-afbeeldingen, variaties op de vraag uit de uitnodiging die aan de kunstenaars is gestuurd, of ze nog iets van een monnik in zichzelf kunnen ontdekken, van buiten of van binnen.

Het onderwerp is geïnspireerd op onze herinneringen aan vele aspecten van het vroegere leven van de kloosterlingen, die toch ook vaak in menigeens eigen omgeving een belangrijke rol hebben gespeeld.

De ontdekking van een bijzondere plek in de gemeente Alphen-Chaam, een vroegere commanderij van de Tempeliers, bracht een onderzoek op gang dat door de heemkundekring 'Carel de Roy' in de publiciteit werd gebracht, hetgeen een symposium opleverde dat vanuit vele gezichtspunten het onderwerp benaderde, waaronder ook dat van de beeldende kunst. Toon Joosen werd gevraagd zijn netwerk aan te spreken om een wereldwijd beeld te tonen, niet alleen van de Tempelier, maar waar alle mogelijke monniken uit verschillende wereldfilosofieën de hoofdrol mochten spelen.

Mail Art is letterlijk 'Post Kunst' en is een interactieve kunstuiting waarbij kunstenaars reageren op een concept geboren uit het brein van een initiator, in dit geval Toon Joosen - artiestennaam Mr. Colori.

Een Mail Art-proces begint met een call, een uitnodiging per brief, waarin kunstenaars wereldwijd uitgenodigd worden te reageren. De kunstenaars hebben we verzocht een kunstwerk te maken dat in een envelop past, gebaseerd op het aangereikt thema, en dit vervolgens retour te sturen aan de initiator. De kunstenaars mogen natuurlijk in alle vrijheid reageren. Deze mail art-kunstenaars staan met elkaar in contact via de traditionele postbestelling en zij organiseren allerlei projecten en exposities buiten de gevestigde musea om. Er wordt ook niets gekocht of verkocht. Het werk wordt opgeslagen in een archief.

Op deze manier ontstaat er een uniek sociaal kunstnetwerk. Regels zijn er niet voor de mail art, alleen ongeschreven afspraken om mee te kunnen blijven doen en om het contact niet te verliezen. Zo is er inmiddels wereldwijd een netwerk ontstaan waar met woord en beeld talloze kunstenaars communiceren zonder elkaar persoonlijk te kennen.

Door het moderne e-mail verkeer, heeft mail art een hedendaagse update gekregen en we zien een geweldige toekomst voor dit kunstgenre op het digitale vlak, maar dat betekent tevens dat we juist de oorspronkelijke Post Kunst moeten koesteren: Mail Art, zoals het ooit begonnen is in de jaren zeventig, moet blijven bestaan. Papier, postzegels en de postbode.

The Museum of Instant Images, het mail art-archief van Mr. Colori uit Chaam, organiseert regelmatig mail art-exposities en werkt nu voor de vierde keer samen met het Jheronimus Bosch Art Center.

Er zijn 250 uitnodigingen gestuurd naar kunstenaars uit vele landen van de wereld en er zijn meer dan 200 bijdragen teruggestuurd uit 40 landen. In deze catalogus ziet u alle werken die zijn opgestuurd. Er zitten zeer fraaie exemplaren bij - collage, getekend, in zeefdruk, in foto's - en ook qua grootte is de expositie zeer gevarieerd. Zelfs enveloppen zijn echte kunstwerkjes geworden, waardig om geëxposeerd te worden.

Deze catalogus toont hoe divers de reacties zijn van de kunstenaars en hoe zij zich, tevens in hun relatie tot de vroegere monnikverbeelding, op een bijzonder pad hebben begeven.

MAIL ART PROJECT

The invitation

THE MONK

MAIL ART CALL 2019 on The MONK

In our municipality of Alphen-Chaam still exists the remains of an old and the only Commandery in the Netherlands of the Knights Templars, a monks order dating back to the Middle Ages; they were crusaders. The inhabitants of our region were liable to a monastery of yet another monks order, 50 kilometers away.

The monks had a predominant role in life in the past times. They managed the lands, they built the monasteries, the churches and the hospitals, protected the pilgrims, farmers and the citizens. They made the rules, wrote the books. They preceded in the rituals of spiritual life and were the guards of civilization and morality. Throughout the world and in all religions and civilizations are people like our monks. Both men and women. Even in each human being lurks a monk, a moralist, a dedicated person and with the desire to live in peace and regularity, occasionally in the seclusion of the surrounding world. There is also being mocked with this misunderstood eccentrics. For example, in the works of Jheronimus Bosch many a monk and saint are represented, for good and for evil. Antony in temptation, John as a scholar and writer, a flying monk, a drunken monk, etc.

Not every monk is a good guy,
not every bad guy is a monk.

De monnik en het meisje

Ik schreef voor u al zonder geloof of gemak
 Mijn bedaagde hand tastte naar geboeid gehoor,
 Zoals de monnik ooit tegen de dieren sprak,
 Taal bekoort gelijkelijck het oog en het oor

Bezingt mijn gedicht melancholie en jonge
 Openheid evenzeer, ambigu als de maagd
 En de moeder, door kwezels blanco bezongen?
 Begeerlijkheid wordt door grijze handen belaagd

De critici scherpen onderwijl hun oordeel
 Van elk geschreven woord wordt de waarde bepaald
 Geen ascetisch gemis of Bourgondisch teveel

Wordt geduld door uw hovelingen, hooggeleerd
 Bepotelen zij mijn tekst tot de schoonheid smaalt
 Het detail zit in de duivel en omgekeerd

C. Gijzen

The monk and the maid

I wrote for you before, without much faith or ease.
 My aging hand reached out for those who'd want to hear,
 not unlike Francis who once preached to birds in trees.
 The word equally beguiles the eye and the ear.

Do my lines likewise praise melancholy and young candour, ambiguous like the Virgin Mother, whose praises plaster saints have always blandly sung?
 It is her charms that gray hands try to smother.

Meanwhile, the critics hone their verdict and assess;
 of every written word the value is taken.
 No ascetic want or exuberant excess escapes your courtiers. Serving academia, they finger my verses till beauty is shaken.

 The detail is in the devil, and vice versa.
