Le Quattro Stagioni & The Museum of Instant Images invite you to participate in the Mail Art project:

'LISTS'

lijsten

...the essential nature of lists, poets who list things in their works and painters who accumulate things in their paintings. ...

Umberto Eco: The list is the origin of culture. It's part of the history of art and literature. What does culture want? To make infinity comprehensible. It also wants to create order -- not always, but often. And how, as a human being, does one face infinity? How does one attempt to grasp the incomprehensible? Through lists, through catalogs, through collections in museums and through encyclopedias and dictionaries. There is an allure to enumerating how many women Don Giovanni slept with: It was 2,063, at least according to Mozart's librettist, Lorenzo da Ponte. We also have completely practical lists -- the shopping list, the will, the menu -- that are also cultural achievements in their own right...

Interview: Der Spiegel

To accomplish Eco's infinity of lists:
Send me your own list, accumulation, enumeration, collection, series, account or frame, etc.

Lijsten

Ik zag Eco en hij had een lijst gemaakt
In een boek van lijsten: hij wilde de dood
Dol draaien, verwarren, sarren, misschien staakt
Hij dan zijn lauwe slachtwerk en ademnood

Zolang je de rijen nog kunt verlengen
Blijf je de lijfeigene van het leefspeel
Alles beter dan de blik te verengen
En dom te buigen voor de ultieme bel

Ik zag de wijze nar, de lach op de mond
Bestorven, hij liet in zijn bibliotheek
Ruimte: mijn gedicht liefdevol bijgezet

In het pantheon van de gewezen bond
Tussen woordenbronnen en dichter, ik keek
Zoel naar de voetenoot¹ van mijn vliedend verzet

Lists

I saw Umberto, he had made a list:
A book of lists of lists to bully Death,
To mix Him up so much He might desist
From slaughtering us to take our daily breath.

As long as you leave room on lists for more,
The game of life will claim your life as well,
So don't reduce your scope to either/or,
Don't throw the towel before the final bell.

I saw the wise old fool, a dying smile
Upon his lips, his library in style
Had room. My verse was lovingly interred

To rest there in that temple, where the word
Once bonded with the bard. Then I made bold
To write a fleeting footnote¹ of revolt.
